

Students will:

- Use high octane words across content areas
- Build a “language of power” database
- Learn the difference between informal and formal language, when to use it and when not to use it

Teachers will:

- Develop students' ability to use and access words
- Be strategic about new vocabulary words; select "high leverage" words
- Work with words students will use frequently
- Teach fewer words more deeply