

Students will:

- Build on knowledge from year to year, in a coherent learning progression

Teachers will:

- Know and understand the math progressions
- Connect the threads of math focus areas across grade levels
- Think deeply about the topic and the ways in which those topics connect to the way it was taught the year before and the years after