

Students will:

- Show through numerous ways, mastery of material at a deep level
- Use the Standards of Mathematical Practice to demonstrate understanding of material and concepts

Teachers will:

- Clearly articulate what mastery and proficiency looks like and means
- Select problem sets that allow students to demonstrate depth of understanding, including problems that have more than one right answer
- Plan for the progression of levels of understanding
- Ensure you have a depth of understanding of the math concepts you are teaching