“The Flood”: Physical and Mental Preparedness

Step 1: Read and Listen to “The Flood”

Directions: Read and listen to Part I of “The Flood.” As you read, place adjectives that describe Roubien in the ovals. Then provide textual evidence to support the words you have chosen in the squares that accompany each oval. Then read and listen to Part II of “The Flood” and repeat the activity. Lastly, answer the culminating question using textual evidence to support your response.

Step 2: Physical and Mental Preparedness for a Natural Disaster

Zola provides the reader with two forceful characters in his short story – Roubien and the flood. Why do you think he creates one human character while personifying the inhuman “flood?” What is he stating about nature and one’s physical and mental preparedness for a natural disaster?
