Schoolnet: Viewing Observation Results (Teacher View)

Access your observation results through the Schoolnet Educator Development Suite module. View observation comments and scores (if applicable), identify trends, and access professional development resources. Also, add your own comments to the observation results.

Access Your Observation Results

Follow these steps to access your observation results:

1. Click the Educator Development header on the blue navigation bar

2. Under My Effectiveness At-A-Glance, click the date of the latest observation

My Effectiveness At-A-Glance

Latest Observation: 1/25/2013 | 2.7 out of 4 | T. Gallen | Full

3. If multiple observations are available, you can navigate to other dates from the "Choose another observation" menu

At the top of the report, view the observer name and the observation type: Full, Partial, or Walkthrough

Date of Observation	Observer
Dec. 3, 2012 - Q2 Leadership O... Choose another observation ▼	J. Mitchell - Assistant Principal Full

4. Note that, typically, observations performed by an administrator include a score for every skill, while peer observations only include comments
