Web 2.0 Tools

Answer Garden: This is a feedback tool used for collaboration virtually. Answer Garden can be used to brainstorm or respond with short answers to questions, polls etc.

Edmodo: This is a social networking platform for teachers, students and parents. It allows for posting of assignments, comments, links, polls and much more. Often referred to as "Facebook" for schools.

Google Documents: These are web-based office suite, which allows for live online collaboration and also acts as a storage location for documents "in the cloud."

QR Codes: Barcodes that can be scanned in order to give someone additional information about a topic, product, etc. housed on the web.

Symbaloo: A free visual bookmarking site. This allows users to create a page with links to all their important web pages in graphically appealing way.

Voki: An educational tool that allows users to create talking characters. Users can speak, use text to speech, or call in using a phone to record text for the character to speak.

Wikispaces: This is a location where you can create your own web pages and allow other users the ability to access and add content to your space.

Wordle: I brain cloud generator used to create visually appealing graphic based on words imputed into the system.

Youtube: This is a video-sharing site where users can upload and share their content